

Volunteers Wanted!

Help us welcome the next generation of ADR professionals

Thursday, November 12, 2026

6:00–8:30 p.m. ET / 3:00–5:30 p.m. PT

The Virtual ADR Fair is a free, fully virtual national event on Zoom Events connecting students, early-career professionals and career changers with ADR organizations, providers, training programs and academic programs from across the U.S. We need volunteers to help the evening run smoothly.

Students and early-career professionals are especially encouraged to volunteer.

Volunteer roles

Room moderator

Help breakout sessions stay on time, monitor the room, and assist with basic technical or operational issues.

Backup moderator

Be ready to step into an organization room if a scheduled moderator is unavailable or additional support is needed.

Attendee help desk

Answer questions in the lobby chat and help attendees find their sessions.

Time commitment

VOLUNTEER TRAINING

Tuesday, October 27

7:00–8:00 p.m. ET / 4:00–5:00 p.m. PT

Can't make it? The training will be recorded.

EVENT NIGHT

Thursday, November 12

5:30–8:30 p.m. ET / 2:30–5:30 p.m. PT

Why volunteer?

- See the ADR field up close and learn directly from organizations across the country
- Connect with ADR professionals, organizations and fellow volunteers
- Support access and pipeline-building in the ADR profession
- No experience needed. We'll train you!

Want to volunteer?

Fill out our Volunteer Interest Form:

forms.gle/y4ojvTYoXsLuQQbb9

Questions? Email Jane Hyman at Jane@ecadrn.org

ecADRn
Early Career ADR Network

RCI
RAY COROLLARY INITIATIVE

ILR Scheinman Institute

American Arbitration Association®